OVERVIEW

As a not-for-profit financial cooperative, Oklahoma Community is a democratically run, member owned institution. Each member, as defined in the bylaws, is an equal owner who helps control the way the credit union is operated by electing a Board of Directors from among themselves. The Board of Directors sets policy, hires a President/CEO, and appoints the Supervisory Committee. Directors serve on a volunteer basis with no compensation for their service.

GENERAL DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

The National Credit Union Administration outlines six key provisions of a Credit Union Director. They are as follows:

1. The board of directors is responsible for the general direction and control of a federal credit union. The board may delegate operational functions to management, but not the responsibility for the credit union's direction.
2. A director must carry out his or her duties in good faith, in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the membership, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.
3. A director must administer the affairs of the credit union fairly and impartially and without discrimination in favor of or against any particular member.
4. A director must have at least a working familiarity with basic finance and accounting practices, including the ability to read and understand the credit union's balance sheet and income statement and the ability to ask, as appropriate, substantive questions of management and auditors.
5. A director must direct the operations of the federal credit union in conformity with the Federal Credit Union Act, NCUA's Rules and Regulations, other applicable laws, and sound business practices.
6. A director may rely on information prepared or presented by employees or consultants the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent and who merit confidence in the particular functions performed.

RESPONSIBILITIES & EXPECTATIONS

Directors are expected to adhere to all responsibilities as outlined in the organization bylaws, the Federal Credit Union Act, and federal and state laws. Directors are also expected to:

- Maintain all business affairs and the affairs of its members in a confidential manner, as well as following the principles of the Credit Union's Code of Ethics policy.
- Attend all regular, committee, and special meetings of the Board of Directors. Regular meetings are typically held the third Thursday of each month from 7:00am – 9:00am.

- Attend an annual day long strategic planning session, typically held on a Friday during the third quarter, when a review of policies of the credit union will take place as well as establishing the strategic plan for the credit union.
- Attend Annual Meeting, which is scheduled each year by the Board of Directors to occur prior to June 30 as stated in the bylaws.
- Review the board packet and financial statements (if applicable) prior to each meeting of the Board of Directors. Documents will be made available to directors a minimum of 48 hours prior to any meeting.
- Appoint the Supervisory Committee to manage internal audits to safeguard against fraud.
- Set the qualifications and select the President/CEO, conduct the President/CEO's performance review on an annual basis and establish compensation and performance incentives for the President/CEO.
